

Mother

She's the mother of all being,

Creator of all life.

Hers is everything that feels -

Go stab her with a knife.

She's everywhere around us all,

But we're too blind to see.

Deaf to our Mother's call,

Will she ever be free?

Rip her apart -

Slash and burn her soul.

Exploit her heart -

Leave a bloody hole.

Look at the trees, the sky, the seas,

The beauty she displays.

Wrecking it all - we're her disease,

Setting her love ablaze.

Rip her apart -

Slash and burn her soul.

Exploit her heart -

Leave a bloody hole.

The trees are falling,

The skies are crying,

The seas - filled with blood.

What once was paradise,

Was raped by our closed eyes.

But one day she shall take no more,

The parasites will scream.

She will kill those she once lived for,

Her revenge is not a dream.

Rip her apart -

Slash and burn her soul.

Exploit her heart -

Leave a bloody hole.

Rip her apart -

Won't you understand?

Exploit her heart -

Your life is in her hand.
